DEL MAR NEWS & NOTES

QUALITY COULD BE KEY TO BEST PAL STAKES

Undefeated What a Song, winner of the Grade III Hollywood Juvenile Championship July 16, is expected to lead a quality-laden field into Sunday's 35th edition of the Grade II, $150,000 Best Pal Stakes for 2-year-olds going 6 ½ furlongs.

What a Song, who prepped for the race with a 5-furlong move Monday morning in 58.60, is owned by Robert and Beverly Lewis and trained by Bob Baffert, who has been the perennial leader of the 2-year-old brigade at Del Mar.

Back to test him is William Currin's Bashert, who fell a neck short of What a Song in the Hollywood Juvenile race. The Tiger Ridge colt broke his maiden the second time out at Hollywood Park, just prior to his loss to What a Song.

Other winners who appear solid for the race are Stan Fulton's A.P. Warrior, a maiden winner trained by Eoin Harty, and Corazondelcampeon [Heart of a Champion], also a maiden winner owned by Scott P. Morrell and trained by David LaCroix. Corazondelcampeon went a shade better than What a Song with a time of 58.40 for 5 furlongs Monday.

Non-winners who might join the group include Plug Me In and Black Hills Bandit, who zipped a half-mile Monday in 46.80.

Baffert had three other prospects among the 10 nominated to the race, so he could come forward with more entries. His other prospects, all winners: Air Ace, Enforcement, and Midnight Lute. All have broken their maidens at Del Mar.

DEL MAR RIDERS TO BE PROMINENT ELSEWHERE

Three of the top five riders in the Del Mar colony will be out to make their marks in the Midwest and East over the coming weekend with horses representing several Del Mar-based trainers.

Leading rider Patrick Valenzuela will ride Chattahoochee War for trainer Robert Frankel in Saturday's Secretariat Handicap at Arlington before swinging over to Mountaineer Park in West Virginia for Sunday assignments on Dover Dere in the West Virginia Derby, Areyoutalkntome in the Harvey Arnheault Breeders' Cup Memorial Stakes and Skipaslew in the West Virginia Governor's Stakes.

All the Sunday mounts are for Del Mar's Doug O'Neill.

Alex Solis will be at Arlington Park Saturday to ride Eddie Read winner Sweet Return in the Arlington Million for Ron McAnally, Megahertz in the Beverly D Handicap for Frankel and Legal Precedent for Ben Cecil in the Secretariat.

Corey Nakatani will be in the gate for the Arlington Million aboard Fourty Niners Son, runner-up in the Eddie Read, for trainer Neil Drysdale. Also expected in the Million gate is the O'Neill-trained Whilly with Felipe Martinez in the irons.

Jose Valdivia will be out of town for the whole weekend, with Halo Ola for trainer Luis Seglin in the Beverly D at Arlington Park Saturday and aboard Iowa Derby winner Shamoan, owned by Solana Beach residents P.R. and Linda Laird and trained by Eoin Harty, in the West Virginia Derby.

CAMERA MOVED FOR BETTER VIEW OF TURF STRETCH

The camera situated for a head-on view of the Jimmy Durante Turf Course was moved seven feet on Tuesday in an effort to give a better, more panoramic view of the stretch run.

At its old location, the camera didn't pick up far-outside horses when the inside rail is at the 14-foot spot instead of at its widest position at 0 feet. The new site will give a wider view of the field as it comes down the stretch.

Also, additional digital recorders will be set up and coordinated with all of the other digital equipment that is used by the stewards.

Del Mar ANALYSIS

By BRAD FREE

BEST BET: Dancing General (1st race)

FIRST RACE:

1.Dancing General 2. Enchanting Lady 3.Tempting Date

DANCING GENERAL has all the earmarks of an even-money winner on a race card that probably will not make anyone rich. 'GENERAL finished more than 11 lengths clear of third in her debut, and the filly that beat her by a nose returned July 24 to win by four lengths. DANCING GENERAL shows three sharp workouts since raced, and enters as a complete and total standout. Low odds, however. ENCHANTING LADY ran well in her return from a five-month layoff, and drops from open company into a race restricted to California-breds. 'LADY showed in winter she can run on the main track, and she might have more early speed than the top choice. TEMPTING DATE is a first-time starter with a series of sharp workouts.

SECOND RACE:

1.Cherokee Spires 2. Lady's Caper 3.Jr. Lifeguard

CHEROKEE SPIRES drops off a claim, which is not exactly a sign of confidence. Furthermore, she has not shown she stay two turns. However, 'SPIRES is a three-time winner and the most accomplished in the field, her workouts for her first start in two months are decent, and she should get a good trip positioned right behind the speed. She is the tepid selection in a wide-open race, nothing more. LADY'S CAPER is the one to catch. She set a blazing pace three weeks ago, and did well to hold second. The racing surface has become more speed-friendly than early in the meet, and if 'CAPER can shake loose from her pace rivals she could be gone. JR. LIFEGUARD goes sprint to route for trainer Carla Gaines, who has a history of success with stretch-outs. Her first winner this meet was sprint-to-route Honor Spirit on Aug. 3.

THIRD RACE:

1.Petrus 2. Standing Brave 3.Honorable Coach

PETRUS ran better than the line shows in his comeback. He got buried behind runners on the far turn, lost position, then re-rallied for second in a race won by the front-runner. PETRUS could be at the mercy of the pace again here, but with a comeback under his belt, and two easy works since, he should be ready to for his best. He can win from behind. STANDING BRAVE missed by less than two lengths in a race won by undefeated El Roblar. 'BRAVE drops from stakes into a first-condition allowance, and he will be finishing. HONORABLE COACH has more tactical speed than the top pair, and should be positioned in front of those two.

Del Mar ANALYSIS

FOURTH RACE:

1.Smokin Joeymodo 2. Banjo Buddy 3.Polly's Score

Unless one of the new shooters runs faster in the afternoon than he has trained in the morning, then six-start maiden SMOKIN JOEYMODO may finally get the job done. He set a solid pace and held third last time in a race that was validated when runner-up Moonlight Romance returned to win on July 25. 'JOEYMODO is faster than the other established front-runner (BRITE MANUEVERS), and can roll gate to wire. BANJO BUDDY debuts with the leading jockey, for a trainer that can get the firsters ready to fire. 'BUDDY is a half-brother to several winners including 14-for-49 Siward and 9-for-62 Tribe, and off a bullet workout six days ago in :35.20, 'BUDDY is expected to show speed from the gate. POLLY'S SCORE was overmatched his last two starts against stakes company and Calbred special-weight foes. He drops back into the claiming ranks and should be picking them up from behind. WHAT A STAR has worked slow, but as a son of win-early sire Old Topper he must be respected.

FIFTH RACE:

1.Norton Peak 2. Queen of Soul 3.Girlsintheoffice

NORTON PEAK got cooked on the lead when overmatched in her comeback, but she was still in the hunt with a quarter mile to go before fading. She drops from $16k to $10k claiming, and is sure to improve second start back against easier company. QUEEN OF SOUL returns from a four-month layoff, and shows up at the rock bottom claiming level. Trainer Bill Spawr does well with comebackers, and 'SOUL has an up-front running style that is better suited to this sprint distance than the two-turn races she was running in during winter. She is dropping off a claim, but that is not a major concern for local owners Sid and Jenny Craig, who entered the week seeking their first win of the summer season. GIRLSINTHEOFFICE is a hard-knocking filly at this low class level. First or second in almost half her starts, she won her maiden race on this track last summer. She should be ready to fire first start in a month for her new trainer Jerry Hollendorfer, whose Del Mar record since the start of 2001 is 2-for-74.

SIXTH RACE:

1.Cash in the Bank 2. Sherman's March 3.Classy Lover

CASH IN THE BANK is taking a big drop (from $50k claiming to $16k) after a decent fourth-place finish in a fast-pace race. But this might be the level at which he fits. The gray speedster drew the cozy outside post (the best place to be in a Del Mar sprint), and he is the quickest in the field. If this race unfolds on the track like it does on paper, CASH IN THE BANK takes the early lead and races gate to wire at a short price. SHERMAN'S MARCH was not disgraced his only start here last summer, and his off-the-pace running style could play well because the top pick is likely to bury the other front-runners early. It sets up for a late-runner to pick up the pieces for second, and SHERMAN'S MARCH fits the description. He rallied from far back to win a maiden race at Turf Paradise, and though the competition is a stronger here, he will be rolling late. CLASSY LOVER is another closer who would benefit if the top choice puts away the rest of the speed. 'LOVER wins more than his share, and will be grinding away from the back of the pack. NEVER LOST A WAGER is a front-runner, but not as fast as the top choice. When he does not make the lead, 'WAGER has quit every time. The same fate may await in this spot.

SEVENTH RACE:

1.Vikki's Honor 2. Salah Love 3.Tizawood

VIKKI'S HONOR had a nightmare trip in her comeback. She raced inside and behind horses, was blocked while trying to rally inside at the top of the stretch, and never did have a chance to do any serious running. She could be compromised again, because she drew the inside post for the second straight time. But the inside has not been as detrimental the past week or so as early in the meet. Is she worth a gamble at a short price? Probably not, but if she runs back to her romping maiden win in January, this is her race to lose. SALAH LOVE followed up a big debut with a disappointing try against winners. Freshened two months, she adds blinkers and will be on or near the pace all the way. TIZAWOOD was scratched at the gate July 24 (seventh race) when she did not warm up properly under Corey Nakatani. She was 13-1 at the time of the scratch. Three days later she worked a good five-eighths, and now switches riders to Victor Espinoza. Her closing style should play well in a race likely to unfold at a hot pace. DEL MAR MISS and ETCH add more speed to the pace scenario.

EIGHTH RACE:

1.Blind Harry 2. Fill the Temple 3.Annie's Irish King

BLIND HARRY rallied into second at a distance probably shorter than he prefers. He stretches out another furlong, and is the logical choice to wear them down from behind. FILL THE TEMPLE raced green and finished second in a fast race first time out. With that race under his belt, and a series of sharp works since raced, he figures to make a big forward move. ANNIE' IRISH KING is the speed of the field, but if he could not get it done last time going five and a half furlongs, how can he possibly last going six and a a half? The reason is because front-runners win more than their share of maiden-claiming sprints.

THOROUGHBRED OWNERS OF CALIFORNIA

NOW YOU CAN LEARN ABOUT RACING AT OUR FREE NEWCOMERS' SEMINARS

Daily (except July 20, 30, Aug. 21 & Sept. 5) in the Plaza de Mexico

Begins one hour before the first race.

Are you new to the racing game or bring a newcomer to the track who's a bit confused by the terminology and betting options that are offered?

Everything you need to know to get started — racing terms, how to read a program, how to place a bet, etc.

New: Analysis before and after the day's first 2 races.

Hosted by Tom Connolly.

CHARITY BEGINS IN THE HOME STRETCH

Every year, the Del Mar Thoroughbred Club is pleased to give something back to the community and the state we call home. Over the last 35 years, we've distributed more than $578 million to the state of California, its agencies and municipalities, and charities such as Children's Hospital, YMCA, California Equine Retirement Foundation and the San Diego Hospice. For more information on how the Del Mar Thoroughbred Club is helping San Diego and California stay ahead of the pack, call 858-755-1141.

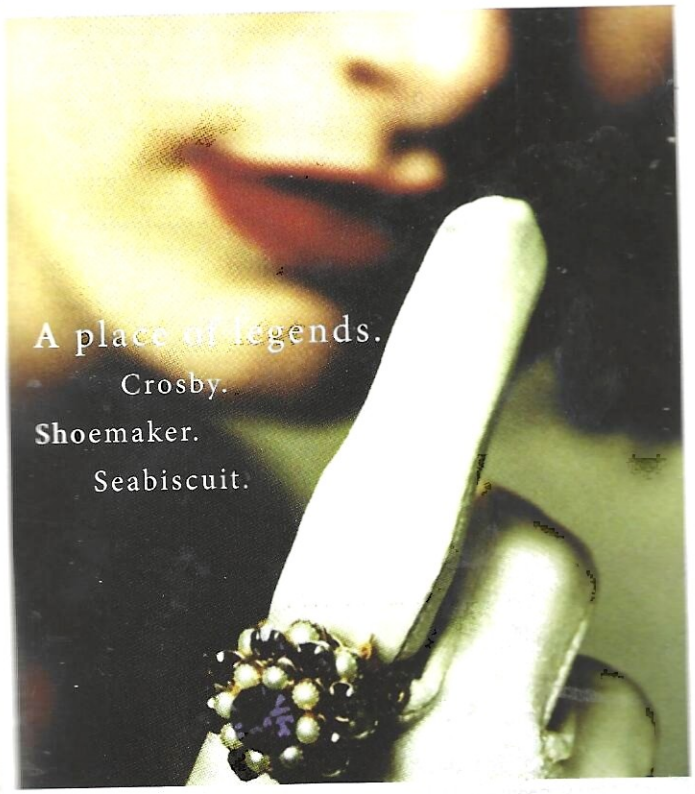
ON THE COVER – An original pastel by equine artist Erica Nordeen



And now, The Grand Del Mar.

Today's visionaries are creating a sophisticated destination in the heart of Del Mar. A resort befitting this legendary locale.

A championship Fazio golf course and the world's most discerning guests.

For a fortunate few, it will be Home.

A small enclave of exquisite Villas on the grounds of The Grand will be available for full and shared ownership.

To learn about this private world of pampering and privilege, call 877-350-9509 or visit www.TheGrandDelMar.com.
